

Life Insurance

A romantic couple is shown from behind, embracing on a beach at sunset. The man is on the left, wearing a white t-shirt and shorts, and the woman is on the right, wearing a white dress. They are standing on a wooden deck or pier that extends into the water. The sky is a mix of orange and yellow, and the water is calm. A large, thick red diagonal arrow points from the top right towards the bottom left, partially overlapping the couple and the text.

What you should consider when buying life insurance

- Your dependents
You may have loved ones such as a spouse, children or elderly parents, who depend on you for financial support. Consider your future expenses depending on your dependents' needs when choosing your life insurance coverage.
 - Your legacy
Evaluate your financial situation and plan ahead if you want to distribute your wealth to your loved ones upon your passing.
 - Your business
If you own a business, you should consider the value of your assets and ensure you preserve it equitably. This also applies to the compensation incurred upon involuntary exit of your key partners.
